A CHAT WITH GEN. MILES.

He Tells About Lieut. Rowan's Expedition to Gen. Garcia.

General Nelson A. Miles was on the train last night enroute from Tampa to Washington. He stated to an Observer reporter that he was making the trip in response to an order from the war department. He thought he would be in Washington only a day or two and would then return to Tampa.

The general said that he had sent Lieutenant Rowan to Santiago province, in Cuba, last month. He met and conferred with General Garcia and one of Garcia's brigadier generals and a colonel returned with Lieutenant Rowan. After examining Lieutenant Rowan's report and conferring with the Cuban officers he had forwarded to Santiago province 7,000 rifles, 1,000.000 cartridges and a steamer load of supplies. These were landed on the north coast and delivered to General Garcia, who has now about 15,000 Cuban soldiers.

General Miles spoke of General Wheeler and said with emphasis that he was a fine officer. He said that when General Wheeler left Tampa for Cuba everybody was in high spirits and the bands played Dixie and Yankee Doodle.—Charlotte Observer.

He Wanted Information.

The Adjutant General laughed a great deal today, at the expense of the lieutenant of the recruiting party of the First Regiment, now at Asheville. He says the lieutenant telegraphed him: "Can I enlist married men?" The Adjutant General replied: "Yes, if they can get away from home." Today the lieutenant telegraphed: "Can I enlist a man 6 feet 5 inches high?" The general replied: "Yes, 7 feet if you can find him and he is otherwise sound." Then the lieutenant telegraphed for transportation for some men from Shelby. The Adjutant General has nothing to do with recruiting. The "request" for transportation, which the lieutenant has complete authority to issue, is promptly honored by any railroad in the United States. —Col. Old's correspondence.

Took The Colonel at His Word.

Chattanooga, June 16—At Camp Thomas, Chickamauga, soon after Col Andy Burt was promoted to the Colonelcy of the Twenty-fifth Colored Regiment, he undertook to exercise his troops in more ways than one. He informed them that they would have to play ball an hour each day in order to get accustomed to the southern sun.

"Now," said the Colonel, "you boys come out and we will take a turn at ball playing. I'm going to play with you. I'm not Col. Burt while playing but simply Andy Burt. Now, play ball."

It soon came the Colonel's time at the bat, and with a vicious swipe he drove the ball hard past second for three bags. A large, greasy black soldier was doing the coaching act, and yelled as the Colonel made a dive for first, "Run Andy; run, you tallow-faced, knocked-kneed, dabergastered———,get your three bags."

The Colonel stopped at first, turning on his heel, returned to the home plate donning his straps, remarked: "I'm Col. Burt from this time on or until further orders.

Out of Work.

Superior court met this afternoon at 2:30 and at 3 o'clock adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. This was caused by running out of work. Thursday's calendar had previously been continued until Tuesday and the parties to the suits had gone home.

The case of Stratford vs. the City of Greensboro was ended sooner than was calculated.

Judge Robinson expressed regrets that there was nothing to do.

It is unfortunate with a docket crowded, as it is in this county, the work cannot be so arranged that there will be no delay of this kind during the term.

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. Regiment of Old Vets.

Washington, June 15—Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, has introduced a resolution for the enlistment of one regiment of men who served in the Confederate army now under 60 years of age, providing that if a sufficient number under that age cannot be obtained that the sons of the Confederate veterans may enlist. Atlanta, Ga., is named as the mustering point and the companies are to be mustered in as completed.

Wanted to Eat Something.

Camp McCalla, Guantanamo Bay, (Wednesday) June 15—A Spanish soldier, so weak from lack of food that he could scarcely walk, came into camp today and surrendered. He said he was starving, as were all other Spanish soldiers, and hundreds were like him, ready to surrender, and would do so, only they feared the Americans would kill them. He said he was in Tuesday's fighting, in which 150 Spaniards were killed. The only food now of Spanish solders is fat pork and sweet potatoes.

VESUVIUS HIT THE VIZCAYA?

A Movement Against Havana--Cadiz Fleet Sighted--New Squadron Forming--Other News.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Off Santiago, June 17—Admiral Sampson personally superintended the last bombardment of the Santiago land batteries. He is greatly pleased with the results and believes the forts on the western side of the bay have been damaged beyond the hope of repair by the American fire. The batteries to the east of the harbor entrance are harder to hit by reason of their greater elevation but they have also been silenced. Admiral Sampson complimented the firing of the Texas.

M'KINLEY WON OVER.

Washington, June 17—President McKinley has been won over to Secretary Alger's view of the situation and has decided upon a vigorous movement against Havana so soon as an army of sufficient magnitude can be mobilized and equipped for the expedition. This action will be taken in direct opposition to the advice of Gen. Miles.

THE BOSS FISH STORY.

How Troops at Tampa Add to Government Rations.

Captain Chadwick now comes forward with the boss fish story and every Queen City guardsman swears it's a true one. Soon after the regiment got settled in camp Capt. Chadwick began to send a detail of two men to the river every day to catch fish for the company. They had good luck, but when the captain read in the News and Observer that Hospital Steward Bryant had caught a 26-pounder, Capt. Chadwick told his men they must look to their laurels or retire from the fishing business. As they had no desire to do the latter, they counseled with all the fisher folk hereabout and put themselves under the guidance of any discipline of Isaac Walton that would allow them to do so. Yesterday they were rewarded for their trouble, and the question of piscatorial supremacy forever settled by Private Luke Davis catching a 48-pound drum, with hook and line. It furnished fish for the whole company, and its mouth and head bones now ornament Capt. Chadwick's tent.—Fred L. Merritt in News and Observer.

Lacks One Man.

Only two companies in the Second regiment are recruited up to the number required by the war department, those from Gastonia and Asheville. Captain Gray's Greensboro company has 105 men while the full complement is 106. There will be no difficulty in getting the lone recruit.

POLITICS AND THE WAR.

The Honorable James Hamilton Lewis of the State of Washington has allowed the statement to ripple through his pink whiskers that the democrats forced the republicans into this war for political purposes. Despite the fact that Mr. Lewis is not exactly empowered to speak for the democratic party it has furnished the republican press with an occasion to do what it has been so solicitous to accomplish ever since hostilities began—drag politics into the war. It is true enough that the democratic members of congress, aided by the better element of the republican party forced the Hannaite element to show its hand. When it was developed that public sentiment was overwhelmingly in favor of putting an immediate end to Spanish barbarities that element voted to declare war. Since that time it has through its organs sought to conceal its past cowardice and present incompetence by perfervid shouting for the flag. It now claims credit for a policy which less than two months ago it was compelled to adopt. Each fresh exploit of our soldiers in the field furnishes these rabid sheets with political similes of the usual appositness and good taste. It is a matter of history that the republican party was forced to fight when it wished very much to run and it is too late for it to pretend to valor.

Mr. Marion Butler is now sitting in his capacity as chairman of the national populist committee and with its opportunities for bossing is doubtless very, very happy.

A band of populists styling themselves the "middle of the roaders," got very mad because the last populist national convention was held after other national conventions had met and these populists set about to remedy this.—Progressive Farmer.

Let them remedy it. It is the only thing beside the eccentricity of the earth's orbit and of the middle-of-the-road populist which the middle-of-the-road populist has not remedied. By all means let them make the remedying unanimous. All the same, unless history is crooked, the Progressive Farmer once stood squarely in the centre of the highway and even signified that it had taken root there.

Although the flimsiness of the stock arguments for Hawaiian annexation has been pointed out time and again and the baselessness of the assertion that annexation is a war necessity has been pointed out, in and out of congress, it is to be feared that the senate will be bulldozed into passing the Newlands resolution. Great pressure will be brought to bear upon senators opposed to the measure and that they will yield is the more probable forecast The administration is pushing the measure and some democrats favor it. Annexation may be the better policy but we like it not. There is more to come and worse. Imperialism is not Americanism and how the two will mix remains to be seen.

John R. Smith, commissioner of agriculture, talked about himself.—Col. Olds' Correspondence.

Has not John R. Smith, commissioner of agriculture, a right to talk about himself? There was a time when everybody else talked about him but there are still many interesting things that he might tell concerning himself that people generally have not heard. John R. Smith should be encouraged to talk both by the public and by the court. John R's forte is not in talking but in sawing wood and saying nothing. For that very reason the paths of conversation should be made easy for him. If only John R. Smith would talk about himself in his sleep!

Thomas B. Reed voted for the annexation of Hawaii by a big majority.

The sound money democrats who supported Palmer and Buckner in 1896 have issued an address.—Philadelphia Record.

At last their identity is about to be established. The turn of the "Man in the Iron Mask" comes next.

Now that De Lesseps is dead the promoters of the Nicaragua canal might import a Martian to superintend the digging.

The Second Regiment is having considerable trouble with deserters. Just why a man should desert after having deliberately enlisted of his own volition is not very clear. It seems now that some of those who have taken the matter of discharge into their own hands are likely to suffer severely therefor. The officers are right to stop the desertions even if deserters have to be shot to do it. All of the men have some experience of camp life before being mustered in and if it is not to their taste they should declare it before enlisting. To desert afterward necessarily brings reproach and demoralization upon the regiment.

If the small pox continues in Statesville that ought to be a good point to get volunteers.

The Telegram would say for the benefit of the esteemed Winston Republican that there is a very distinct line between good-natured chaff and blackguardism and the respectable journal always observes it.

The fact that their officers had to whack the insurgents over the backs with swords to make them stop fighting does not argue their utter uselessness as allies when the band strikes up for the first grand dance.

In the recent fighting at Caimanera a newspaper correspondent was shot through the nose. According to the popular conception his usefulness as a news gatherer will be materially lessened.

The interest of New York City in the war is temporarily overshadowed —"Pop" Anson has been made manager of the baseball team.

We do not believe in hasty criticism but it certainly looks as if the marines at Guantanamo have been injudiciously and unnecessarily sent into the jaws of death.—Norfolk Landmark.

Nevertheless up to the present time the jaws do not appear to have cause to congratulate themselves inordinately.

Go and see Norfolk in the time of war and see how a seaport town fortifies herself. Round trip $3.50.

Now that Richard Mansfield's pockets are filled with American dollars and the season is at an end he has discovered that he has not been accorded proper treatment in this country. "I have now but one thought," he said to a Chicago interviewer the other day; "it is to wind up my business and get out of a country where I made the fatal mistake of pursuing a career that can lead to nothing but humiliation."

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

I was seriously afflicted with a cough for several years, and last fall had a more severe cough than ever before. I have used many remedies without receiving much relief, and being recommended to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, by a friend, who, knowing me to be a poor widow, gave it to me, I tried it, and with the most gratifying results. The first bottle relieved me very much and the second bottle has absolutely cured me. I have not had as good health for 20 years. Respectfully, Mrs. Mary A. Beard, Claremore, Ark. Sold by C. E. Holton.

Denies the Story.

New York, June 16 -Stephen Crane telegraphs to the Evening World from Guantanamo Bay, June 14th, a positive denial of statements that the bodies of the marines killed in the fighting on Saturday were mutilated after the men fell. The appearance of mutilation, it asserted, was caused by Mauser bullets fired at close range, the Spaniards having ambushed the marines, one of whom was pierced by eight bullets. Surgeon Edgar is quoted as authority for the contradiction of the story of mutilation.

Mrs. Thompson's Remedy

Hasty, Richmond Co., N. C., May 27, 1898.

Mrs. Joe Person;

Your medicine has saved me (I am sure) years of suffering and heavy doctor's bills. When I began to take the Remedy I was sick all the time with troubles peculiar to my sex. I had run down until I only weighed 115 pounds. I took ten bottles of the Remedy, and am now a well woman and weigh 170. I cannot express my gratitude to you and wish suffering womankind everywhere could be induced to give it a fair trial. I have had seven children, have lost three trying to raise them by hand, and raised three on the bottle. The baby I have had since taking Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is the first one I have been able to nurse from the breast, and it is a fine, fat baby. Every nursing mother who suffers from any woman's trouble ought to give Mrs. Persons' Remedy a fair trial. Before taking it I dragged through my work, now I do it. It gave me good sleep and appetite and put me in perfect health. My neighbors call Mrs. Person's Remedy "Mrs Thompson's Remedy," because I sing its praises so much to everybody.

The Old Sailor's Yarn.

"Yes," said the old fellow who professed to have been a sailor and who hitched his unmentionables and rolled in his walk that he might look the part, "I was marooned onot.

"It's a solemn fack, gents. Fur ten years I lived alone on a South sea island. I wasn't jest deserted there, but the ship blowed up an I was the only one what ever reached land ag'in. I floated on a spar to that there deserlate island. None of you gents knows what it is to be lonely, to have no feller bein to jaw with, to see nuthin above but the heavens and nuthin 'round you but water. I would a died if I hadn't ketched a sea gull and trained him so he would mind like a dog."

Here a sympathetic listener piped the old fellow up to grog, and he seemed to lose his bearings. "Ten times I writ home," he went on, "and half a dozen times I cabled."

"Why, you old fraud," interrupted a fresh water sailor who had been taking in the narration, "if you could send letters and cablegrams, you weren't marooned. What kind of a game is this you're givin us?"

But the old salt was equal to the occasion. Over he tumbled on the floor, he went through the outward symptoms of a fit, had to be supplied with another dose of restorative and when he came to, looked about him in a dazed way. "What hev I been sayin, gents?" he asked faintly. "Ever since I was marooned I have these here spells and go to unwindin novels. It was fur ten years, gents," and the last word floated back as he made a dash through the front door.—Detroit Free Press.

gives good blood. It is a nerve strengthener and restorer, the efficacy of which cannot be over-estimated; when it is learned that its absolute freedom from poisonous drugs or opiates, makes it safe for use in the hands of sick or inexperienced persons, there is an increased appreciation of it. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is a specific for impoverished or impotent nerves; it feeds the nervous system to high health, provides for physical and brain endurance, cheerfulness, happiness and energy.

Our thirty-six page illustrated book contains some interesting pages on Nerve Exhaustion. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

Talking of Values

and

Receiving Them

Is Two Different Things

We leave out the words and present to you the genuine article—

VALUE.

It takes (in the case we have in view) material, workmanship, fit and finish, to constitute value in a ready made garment. We present to you today the garment which contains all the above, and a guarantee goes with each one.

They Will—They MUST Give Satisfaction.

Beyond question, we believe them to be the best Unlaundered Shirts on the market.

Our patrons say that the Druid Hill is the best for the money. 65c. 2 for $1.35.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud

Clothiers and Haberdashers,

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Remember the date of the lawn party Tuesday June 21st.

Ingram mentions in his ad today a line of fresh and choice vegetables.

Bill Adams left today for Bessemer City to finish a job of plumbing he has at that place.

Owing to the rain the crowd on the postoffice fence was not as large yesterday as usual.

When thinking of what you will have for dinner turn to the new ad of Vuncanon & Co,, in this issue.

An officer passed through this morning returning to Trinity from Leaksville with an escaped convict.

In Hudson's ad today you will find a list that may help you in deciding a knotty problem: "What shall I get for Sunday dinner?"

An interesting program is promised to those who attend the performance by the Idler's Sketch Club at the Academy of Music tonight.

Don't forget the lawn party to be given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary church next Tuesday night, June 21st, in R. M. Phillips' yard on South Elm street.

There are now only four prisoners in jail. This is the smallest number left in some time except last court when Judge Robinson reduced the number to one.

A variety of advertisements appear in the penny column today by the Piedmont Realty and Guaranty Co. Read them and ascertain if you are interested in any of them.

The lightning last night struck a tree near Mr. Neal Ellington's on West Market street. The tree is about twelve inches in diameter and about half the bark was torn off the trunk.

During the thunder storm last night the telephone exchange suffered considerable loss. Lightning struck the wires and out of 125 'phones 85 were disabled by having the fuse burned out.

By special request the song, "Si Hubbard at the Circus," which, received encore after encore last night, will be repeated tonight. The song of itself is worth double the price of admission.

The Chapel Hill and Greensboro colored ballists are having a game at the park here this afternoon. On the way out they marched through the streets headed by a drum corps. Owing to the rain the ground is in fine condition to slide in on the home plate.

It so happened that on yesterday the Telegram had another scoop on war news. But then it only makes good our claim that we have the best news service agoing. Of course there can be no doubt about this when all the afternoon papers that haven't it are trying to get it.

Stratford vs. City of Greensboro.

The above entitled case occupied the attention of the court from yesterday morning until just before noon today. Without putting the case to the jury Judge Robinson decided the matter himself in favor of the city.

We learn that Mr. Stratford appeals his case to the supreme court on the following grounds:

The judge refused to give his judgment upon the admissions in the answer of the defendants.

The judge answered the issue himself without permitting the jury to pass upon it.

The judge refused to submit the issues tendered by the plaintiff.

The judge submitted the wrong issue to the jury.

The judge excluded certain testimony offered by the plaintiff.

The judge admitted certain testimony of defendants objected to by the plaintiff.

The refusal of the judge to give the plaintiff judgment upon the pleadings and the answer he wrote to the issue.

Removal.

I have moved my stock of bicycles and bicycle sundries from 115 East Market street to 217 South Elm street, where I will be glad to wait on my old customers and friends.

S. G. Blaylock.

To Get Hobson Back.

Washington, June 16—Captain Nicholas Ludlow, of the monitor Terror left Key West today under flag of truce for Havana to negotiate with Blanco for the exchange of Hobson and his men for Spanish prisoners now at Fort McPherson, Ga.

Secretary Long credits the Madrid dispatch that Blanco has been ordered to effect an exchange, and believes Hobson and his men will be free within a week.

ELIGIBILITY EXTENDED.

Circular Letter Just Issued Bearing On Civil Service.

Sir—On May 13th, 1898, the President amended clause 4, of Rule VII, as follows, so that it now reads:

The term of eligibility shall be one year from the date on which the name of the eligible is entered upon the register. Provided, That in case a person whose name is upon any register shall be mustered into the military or naval service of the United States at a time when the United States may be engaged in hostilities with an enemy, the period of eligibility of such persons shall, under such conditions as the Civil Service Commission may prescribe, be considered as suspended during the time such eligible may be serving in the army or navy of the United States.

Persons who may desire to take advantage of this rule should write to the Civil Service Commission.

By direction of the Commission:

John R. Procter,
President.

Mr. P. Ketcham of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Terrible News From Spain.

A correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution writing concerning some of his recent experiences in the Spanish West Indies, says that as a rule the Spanish papers had either McKinley or Sampson or Dewey killed every day, "and we used to make pools the night before as to whose obituary we would read in the morning." Twice the President was reported to have committed suicide—once after the news reached him that his own troops had begun to sack Washington. "The statement that he was a naturalized Chinaman, born in Canton, was in circulation all the time."—Richmond Dispatch.
